

Australian Disc Golf Championships

Cancellation and refund policy

(subject to change)

Hello Aussie disc golfers!

Please read below the cancellation and refund policy for ADGC22.

1. Refunds are handled through players Disc Golf Scene registration.
2. All registration booking fees are non-refundable. Only event fees will be refunded.
3. All additional event merchandise purchased at registration is non-refundable. We will work with those who withdraw from the event to ensure they receive their purchased merchandise by post or other player pick-up
4. Waitlist players who do not get into the event will have their $10 waitlist charge refunded.
5. Cancellations before 18th October 2022 will be refunded less a $10 handling fee.
6. Cancellations after 18th October 2022 will be refunded less a $10 handling fee only if the player's spot is filled. If a player's spot is not filled, we will follow PDGA event policy to make a final decision on refund amount www.pdga.com/rules/competition-manual/103
7. Any 'no-shows' forfeit all entry fees and player pack.
8. Players who withdraw after 14 November 2022 will not receive a refund or player pack. Tee times and divisions are set from this date.
9. The tournament directors and event coordinators have discretion in regards to extenuating circumstances.

This is the pinnacle event in the country and players are travelling from all corners, even overseas to compete for the title of Australian Champion. In the event of last minute cancellations, it could be difficult for a replacement player who may need to travel to sort transportation and accommodation with minimal notice. In the end, we hope nothing comes up and all registrants are able to make the event as planned.

We ask that any questions or enquiries about cancellations or refunds be directed to info@adgc.com.au as messages sent through any other channels may not be returned or addressed and will not constitute an official withdrawal.

Sincerely,

Adam Lowe and Patrick Ferris, Tournament Directors
